

Greenville County Behavioral Health Coalition: Speaker's Bureau Guide

Faces and Voices of Recovery (FAVOR): Greenville

Speakers who represent the organization are available to present and educate about their organization and cause at local events. Topics include substance abuse disorder, family recovery, intervention, treatment, and positive psychology surrounding people with substance abuse disorder. FAVOR offers weekly classes for individuals with substance abuse disorder, and families of individuals with substance abuse disorder. Calendar of meetings available on their website.

Serves: individuals with substance abuse disorders; families of individuals with substance abuse disorder

355 Woodruff Rd #303

Greenville, SC 29607

Phone 864-385-7757

Web www.favorgreenville.org

Greenville Homeless Alliance

Speakers who represent the organization are available to present and educate about GHA initiatives to neighborhood associations, faith communities, and local businesses. Educational information concerning the organizations initiatives and data reports are available on their website. Resources for those experiencing homelessness are also available on their website.

Serves: individuals experiencing homelessness

606 Pendleton St

Greenville, SC 29601

Phone 864-568-5791

Web www.gvlhomes4all.org

Julie Valentine Center

The Julie Valentine Center serves victims of sexual abuse; child abuse survivors; families of child abuse survivors. They offer trainings to educate parents, caregivers, church leaders, and professionals about the prevention of sexual assault and recognizing abuse. Additional information available through on their website.

Serves: victims of sexual abuse; child abuse survivors; families of child abuse survivors

2905 White Horse Rd

Greenville, SC 29611

Phone 864-331-0560

Web www.julievalentinecenter.org

Just Say Something

Just Say Something provides educational awareness programs about drugs and starting conversations about drug usage for students, parents, and the community. These programs include; Strengthening Families, Youth Summit, and Community Talks.

Serves: families; parents; teens and children

25 Woods Lake Rd Suite 600

Greenville, SC 29607

Phone 864-467-4099

Web www.justsaysomething.org

Mental Health America of Greenville County

Mental Health America of Greenville County offers educational resources for children, teens, and adults. QPR - Question, Persuade, Refer (classes available for preteens, teens, and adults); Teens4Hope board (meets monthly and focuses on a specific behavioral health concern for youth and teens), and Don't Duck Mental Health (lesson plans focused on elementary -aged children).

Serves: individuals with behavioral health illnesses; families of individuals with a behavioral health illness; teens and children

429 N Main St. #2
Greenville, SC 29601
Phone 864-467-3598
Web www.mhagc.org

The National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI): Greenville

Provides educational classes for families, parents, and persons affected by psychiatric disorders. Offers presentations in schools to help identify children who are at risk for mental illness. NAMI Faithnet is an interfaith resource network that consists of and serves clergy members, and congregations of all faith traditions. Calendar of educational classes is available online.

Serves: individuals with behavioral health illnesses; families of individuals with a behavioral health illness; teens and children

2320 E North St L
Greenville, SC 29607
Phone 864-331-3300
Web www.namigreenvillesc.org

Phoenix Center

Hosts preventative 10 -week programs for youth (elementary through high school). The Lottie Beal Gibson Center of Excellence hosts leadership training, clinical training, NAADAC education provider, merchant education, and tobacco education for students.

Serves: individuals with substance abuse disorders; professionals in the substance abuse disorder community; teens and children

1400 Cleveland St
Greenville, SC 29607
Phone 864-467-3790
Web www.phoenixcenter.org

SWITCH

Provides education concerning human trafficking to students, church youth groups, men's groups, people in the commercial sex industry, at risk populations, and individuals who want to leave the life.

Serves: individuals involved with sex trafficking

PO Box 5394
Greenville, SC 29606
Phone 864-350-0281
Web www.switchsc.org

Safe Harbor

Educates students, parents, children, community groups, businesses, faith communities, and professionals who deal with perpetrators and victims of domestic abuse. Services available through REP - Relationship Enhancement Project; trainings; literature; speaking engagements; and online.

Serves: victims of domestic violence and their children

PO Box 174
Greenville, SC 29602
Phone 864-467-1177
Web www.safeharborsc.org